HOAGLAND'S NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING! W. E. COOPER HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive Carriage Factory, Corner of Second and Morrison Streets. He respectfully refers to the following CARD.

Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongue to all vehicles that has ever been used. It fastens without bolt or screw and is locked [...] and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient safe and secure. It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use at a small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend [...] all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent heretofore considered the best in use.

As Chief Factor of the Hudson's Bay Company he might have withheld supplies to the American emigrants upon their arrival in this country and thus have very greatly retarded the settlement of the country by our people. His interests as a fur trader suggested this. He refused to let the settlers have food [...] and implements [...] because by pursuing this policy the settlement of the country would be prevented or at least very greatly retarded. [...] For this he was very greatly censured by other gentlemen in the employment of the Company in this country and these continued to forward their complaints to the Governor and Directors of the Company's house in London, who finally expressed their disapprobation in a marked manner. He replied substantially as follows:

"Gentlemen, you complain of me for having supplied the first wants of the Americans upon their arrival in this country and that by doing so I have enabled them to occupy for agricultural purposes a country to which we have hitherto looked for fur bearing animals. I admit that our interests as a fur company and that my personal interests could not be thus promoted, and that they even suffered by my doing so. But what else could I do as a man having a spark of humanity in my nature? I did not invite the Americans to come. To be frank I greatly regretted their coming, but they did come, covered with the dust of travel, worn out by the fatigues, the hardships and dangers incident to a very long and perilous overland journey. They came without food or raiment. I fed them and clothed them. The Bible tells me that if my enemy is hungry I must feed him; if naked I must clothe him. But these destitute men and helpless women and children were not my enemies, and I am sure that God does not require me to do more for my enemies than for these. [...]"

I will relate an anecdote illustrating the very extraordinary ingratitude with which the Doctor was frequently treated, a spirit of ingratitude which caused those persons to hate even the Doctor's friends. Having [...] business with Mr Preston, the Surveyor General, and not finding him in his office I sought him up on the street, where I found him engaged in some commonplace and unimportant conversation with a very rough looking specimen of the genus homo. I paused silently, at a little distance from the parties, until the conversation ceased, when I introduced my little matter of business, which in about five minutes was disposed of in a few brief questions on my part with answers to them by Gen. Preston. I had not in the meantime failed to observe a very peculiar expression in the countenance of the stranger, who seemed to be eyeing me in a manner that was in no way agreeable. When the conversation between Gen. Preston and myself ceased the stranger asked Gen. Preston my name. Upon being told he immediately began to curse and denounce me. As soon as he paused to get breath I said to him, "Well sir, I know not who you are, but from the vindictiveness of your manner and your language respecting me I suppose that you are some one in whose worthless carcass Dr. McLoughlin [...] years ago kept the breath of life, and now you requite him by abusing me because I am his attorney and adviser." I then inquired of [...] the man's name [...] the Doctor's residence and upon inquiring what he knew of the man he informed me [...] that he had once heard that a family of immigrants were [...] to proceed further and in danger of perishing. STATEMENTS OF DR. JOHN McLOUGHLIN.

VANCOUVER 1st March 1844.

They built three [...] houses and prepared the wood for a saw mill but it not suiting my purpose to erect it the [...] I dropped it for the time and in the spring [...] had potatoes planted there, and [...] the mill race blasted and in the spring [...] the quantity of timber hauled out [...] a small building erected to serve as a house and store to replace the houses which had been burnt [...] and afterward destroyed by the Indians. In 1840 the Rev Jason Lee applied to me for a [...] which I had at the falls to build for the Mission and which he would return when required. I granted his request, agreed, and at the same time sent for Mr Lee to point out to him the ground I wanted to reserve for my mill yard, and to show him where he might build, and wrote Mr Lee the following letter:

VANCOUVER 21st July 1840.

To the Rev. Jason Lee [...]—Yesterday I was informed that you intended to establish a Mission at the falls of the Wallamette. I beg to inform you that in 1830, as is well known to most of the old settlers in the Wallamette, I took possession of the side of the falls on which I got a mill race blasted) from the upper end of the falls across to the Clackamas river, and down to where the Clackamas falls into the Wallamette, including the whole point of land and the small island in the falls on which the portage is made, and which I intend to claim when the boundary line is drawn.

Though I intend to send our ship [...] to California, still I cannot speak decidedly till she arrives. However I am of opinion we will send a vessel to California, certainly this fall, and when one goes it will afford me great pleasure to accommodate Mr Creto with a passage on the same terms as those paid per Lama [...] from this to California.

I am dear sir yours truly,

(Signed) JOHN McLOUGHLIN.

Private—P. S.—Of course this is not to prevent your building the store as my object is merely to establish my claim.

(Signed) J. McLOUGHLIN.

Mr Lee proceeded to erect a building with the [...] divided the building into two apartments, one end for a dwelling house and the other for a store, in the former of which Mr Waller resides at present.

In 1841 Mr Felix Hathaway had some timber on the island to build, as I thought, a boat for a [...] company that had been formed in the Wallamette, but I since learned it was for himself. However I gave him formal notice of my claim, and erected a small house on the island; he desisted for a time, but afterward proceeded.

When at the falls on this business conversing with Rev. Mr Waller on the subject of Mr Hathaway's jumping my claim, he asked me if I had any other claim. I told him that I had no other, that the falls was the only place I claimed in the country. "Have you no claim," says Mr. Waller, "at Clackamas?" I answered that I had not. "Well," said Mr Waller, "my claim is at the Clackamas."

In the fall of 1842 I heard a rumor that Mr Waller was starting pretensions in opposition to my claims at the falls, and the Rev'd Jason Lee happening to call here I spoke to him on the subject, to which Mr Lee replied that he had heard such a report, and that he had spoken to the Rev'd Mr Waller on the subject, and that the latter told him (Mr. Lee) that he set up no such claim. Some days after this I took, in November, 1842, Mr Stephen Meek applied to me for a building lot. I told him to select a lot and I would go there in a few days to give him possession of it. He accordingly went to the falls but returned in a few days to tell me that Mr Waller had opposed his making a selection, and had told him that he was much obliged to me for giving away lots on his claim, that he could do so himself, on which I wrote the following letter to Mr. Lee.

FORT VANCOUVER, 18th Nov'r 1842.

THE REV. JASON LEE, Superintendent of the M. Mission in Oregon—Dear Sir: When I had the pleasure of seeing you last I mentioned to you that I had been informed that the Rev'd Mr Waller of your Mission, now stationed at the falls of the Wallamette, claimed the land I claim at that place, to which I understood you to reply that you had heard such a report, and that you had spoken to the Rev'd Mr Waller and that he had told you he put up no claim.

Will you do me the favor to let me know if I understood you correctly or not? as Mr Meek, to whom I had given a building lot, came to me today and informed me that Mr Waller had ordered him not to build there, as he claimed one mile square at that place.

I am [...] dear [...] your obedt. humble servant,

(Signed) J. McLOUGHLIN.

And received the following letter:

WALLAMETTE, 29th Nov'r 1842.

My Dear Sir: Yours of the 18th inst. came safe to hand and I now embrace the earliest opportunity to send you a reply. I said to you that I had conversed with Mr Waller on the subject of claims at the falls and that I understood him to say that he set up no claim in opposition to yours, but if your claim failed and the Mission did not put in a claim, he considered he had a better right than any other man, and should secure a title to the land if he could. From what I have since heard I am inclined to think I did not understand Mr Waller correctly, but I am not certain that I [...] so. You will here allow me to say that a citizen of the United States by becoming a Missionary does not renounce any civil or political right. I cannot control any man in these matters. [...] I had not the most distant idea when I stationed Mr Waller there that he would set up a private claim to the land.

As I am inclined to think I misunderstood Mr Waller before, I can say nothing further on that point, but as Mr Waller acts entirely on his own private responsibility in this matter I would beg leave respectfully to suggest the propriety of an understanding being had between Mr Waller and yourself on this subject. I presume he can have no objection to state to you distinctly his claim (if he has any) if you desire him to do so, and I can but hope that a mutual understanding will produce mutual satisfaction.

Please allow me to trouble you to say to Mr McL[...] that Mr Bishop's draft in my favor came safe to hand.

I am dear sir, yours truly,

(Signed) JASON LEE, S. U. M.

When I received the above letter I was at the falls and had seen the Rev. Mr Waller [...] conversation on the subject of his [...] to my claim, in which he [...] he set up no counter claim to mine, but that he would assert his right in the event of my claim [...] drawn. He stated a wish that I would [...] keep the land that he had cleared [...] I [...] had given [...] which I [...] assented [...] that [...] and [...] fence was beneficial to the [...] equal extent [...] which he agreed.

Two days after I employed Mr Hulsp[...] to survey and mark the boundaries of my claim, after which he proceeded to measure what Mr Waller had cleared and fenced [...] as we were going to measure the same extent [...] which he was to make over to me in exchange. [...] I assented to his holding [...] Mr Waller [...] and only stopped and said [...] keep mine, keep yours [...]

[illegible]

[...] Mr Hastings [...] Mr Hastings [...] but agreed to pay Mr Waller for the land he had cleared on the west side of the [...] He accordingly paid him twenty five dollars by an order on [...] and I was surprised last summer to learn that Mr Waller has put in a further claim for a clearance on the east side of the road, for which he demanded one [...] I [...] agreed to pay the same [...] the Rev. Mr Lee acting in behalf of Mr Waller would only accept of fifty dollars, for which I now hold his receipt.

In the summer of 1843, when Mr Ricord passed [...] here he mentioned that as I was a British subject I could not hold the Falls of the Wallamette. As this was the first time I heard this objection stated and hearing he was a lawyer I offered him a fee and asked him if he could point out a way by which I could hold the claim at the Falls. He declined to give an opinion, but a few days after [...] Mr Lee came here and Mr Ricord handed [...] the following letter:

[To] John McLoughlin, Esq. C. F. H. B. Company—Sir: In reply to your proposal for retaining me professionally to establish your claim to the Wallamette known as Oregon City, I have the honor to inform you that my original design was to have merely passed through the Territory to the Sandwich Islands with as little delay as possible, but since the opportunity is thus presented of benefiting myself and others in a matter of considerable importance I shall be most happy to serve you on the following conditions:

That your pre-emption line be so run as to exclude the island upon which a private company of citizens have erected a grist mill, conceding to them as much water as may be necessary for the use of said mill.

That the Rev. A. F. Waller be secured in the ultimate title to the two city lots now in his possession and other lots now in his possession, and other lots not exceeding five acres to be chosen by him from among unsold lots of your present survey.

That the Rev. Jason Lee, on behalf of the M. [...] Mission, be in a similar manner secured in regard to certain lots in Oregon City.

For my services in attempting to establish your pre-emption to the land in question the sum of £[...] sterling money.

The three first mentioned conditions are induced by a wish to escape the censure of several personal friends in this country, to diminish at the same time as much as possible the opposition which I am convinced will be made to your claim, and to secure on your behalf the valued testimony of [...] important witnesses. As to the last, my own services will I trust imply such an amount of labor as to render it satisfactory to you. I would desire not to make public the fact of my retainer, lest any person unfriendly to your claim should in the meantime endeavor to counteract my efforts. Conciliation ought to be observed towards those who heretofore pretended to hold adverse possession of the same tract, and such a course as to entice the good wishes and feelings of the Wallamette citizens generally. To this end I would recommend the appointment as your agent of some one not directly connected with the H. B. Company.

In case of my retainer my labor will be confined to the reduction of all such testimony as can be had on the support of your claims, to drafting a caveat with a written argument in its support founded upon the treaties of amity, commercial and joint occupation, and upon the general laws for the naturalization of foreigners, and a letter of advice to you upon the views to be taken of your claim and the course most desirable to be followed by you in regard to all.

By such measures I have entire confidence in the final result of your cause.

I have the honor to be your obedient servant,

(Signed) JOHN RICORD.

These terms of Mr Ricord's appear to propose an amicable arrangement when all the sacrifices were to be made by me, however, I requested time to consider and asked ten days, and at the expiration of that time wrote the following letter:

VANCOUVER 30th Nov. 1843.

JOHN RICORD, Esq.—Dear Sir: I have delayed answering yours of the 2d inst. to the present time in the expectation that our express would arrive and afford me an opportunity of visiting you at Oregon City and of discussing the points to which I object, as though most anxious to do everything I can to promote a good feeling among the members of our little community, still the desire ought to be mutual, but in the document you gave me the concessions are all to be on my side, and some of these are perfectly inadmissible, as they are out of my power. For instance how can I dispossess Mr Meek of his lots? But before proceeding further it is necessary for me to know if I am to consider you my legal adviser or not, as in the event of my not coming to terms with these gentlemen I wish to know how you and I will be placed, and to be candid with you I do not see how I can do myself the pleasure to accept of your services on the conditions proposed.

I am dear sir, your obedient humble servant,

(Signed) JOHN McLOUGHLIN.

To this I received the following reply:

OREGON CITY 17th Nov 1843.

JOHN McLOUGHLIN, Esq. C. F. H. B. COMPANY—Sir: I am sincerely sorry to learn through your favor of the 10th inst. that I am precluded from serving you honorably in the matter of your claim, that is, that you decline to comply with the only proposal under which I could with respect to my friends at the Falls hope to make good your title.

The conditions in my communication of the 2d inst. were intended to remove all semblance of impropriety on my part, and at the same time to benefit your claims by removing of opposition on the part of any person in this country, while on the contrary you would find in your friendly opponent a friend and co-operator. I do yet hope that an interview with Mr Waller will enable you to accommodate matters that I may render you the services proposed. But if this cannot be I shall then have nothing to detain me longer in Oregon, and with your consent should like to pursue my intended voyage to the Sandwich Islands by the first opportunity. Will you therefore be pleased to inform me whether I can obtain a passage on board your next vessel about to sail, and [...] how soon. You enquire whether or not you are to consider me as your legal adviser. Instead I [...] declined to become such while at Vancouver except upon the conditions presented in my letter, and I hope now that my inability to become your adviser under these circumstances will not occasion in your mind the slightest distrust of my motives.

That I design so soon to leave the country is in part the result of my not being retained in your case, a circumstance which must necessarily have detained me till spring. I assure you, sir, that my feelings toward you is in no way changed and [...] at first continue to be

Your humble friend and obedient servant,

(Signed) JOHN RICORD.

Messrs. Lee and Ricord passed here on their way to embark on board the Columbia, and according to the invitation held out by Mr Ricord I made the following offer: To allow the Methodist Mission [...] lots for a church, 2 lots for a school, [...] a clergyman, 2 lots for a schoolmaster. These lots to be taken out of the unconceded lots [...] between streets No 8 and 3 and they [...] from the lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, [...] in block No [...] and [...] block No 28. As to the house occupied by Mr Abernethy I will appoint two [...] the Mission will appoint two, [...] these will nominate a fifth, and I will pay what [...] arbitrators state the building is worth. I will allow the Mission one lot on which the store [...] which is the house Mr Waller [...] was [...] if the Mission is withdrawn or gives up keeping a store in either case the lots to revert to me, and I will pay for the improvements, or if they will give them up now I will pay for the improvements and give them two lots in their place [...] of their school and church. It must be understood in making the estimation that Mr Waller's house was built with my timber.

The milling company to go on as they have done, and when the boundary is settled [...] I will appoint two arbitrators [...] milling company will appoint two, [...] these two to nominate a fifth. These five [...] value [...] and the value of the [...] I will [...] pay [...] the estimate [...] put upon it by the arbitrators. [...] the lots 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 [...] block No [...] and 4 and [...] block No 28 [...] I want them for my establishment.

I made these terms to Mr Ricord and subsequently to Mr Lee, and verbally stated to Mr Lee that I did not see that Mr Waller had any claims on me, but if they could show me that he had any I would willingly admit them, as I did not wish to have his or any other man's services for nothing, that I was anxious that mutual good will should exist in our little community, and they both appeared to express to me that they considered the terms fair and liberal, and seemed to regret that they had no power to treat for Mr Waller, for whom Mr Lee seemed to interest himself much, and requested me to call on Mr Waller, which I promised to do and have since done. Mr Lee enquired if I intended to take any measures to repossess the Mission lots before his return from the United States. I assured him that I entertained no such design and would take no steps [...] that I feel that would give any trouble. This expression of my intentions appeared to afford him much satisfaction. Notwithstanding what passed at our last interview before he went, I was surprised now to discover that three days before that time Mr Ricord had penned a caveat against me which Mr Lee must have known, and which was to be left to be delivered to me by their friends after their departure from the river, and [...] was delivered to me only on the 2d February 1844.

To John McLoughlin, Esq. C. F. H. B. Company—Sir: You will please to take notice that [...] Mr A. F. Waller has taken formal measures at Washington to substantiate his claims as a pre-emptor and actual settler upon the tract of land sometimes called the Wallamette Falls settlement and sometimes Oregon City, comprising six hundred and forty acres, and being aware that although a foreigner, you claim to exercise acts of ownership over said land, this notice is given to apprise you that all sales you may make of lots or other subdivisions of said farm after the receipt hereof will be regarded by my client and by the Government as absolutely fraudulent and will be made at your peril. The grounds upon which my client claims exclusive right under the laws of the United States of acquiring a patent for said land are:

1st. As a citizen of the United States 1840 when he first took possession of the same.

2d. Prior occupancy, building, fencing and clearing of said land from which he has never removed his domicil.

The grounds on which he denies your pretended claim to the right under the laws of the United States of acquiring a patent to the said tract of land are:

1st. That you are an alien owing allegiance to a foreign Government and therefore you are not eligible to such a claim.

2d. That you are the chief officer of a foreign corporate company, and that would be sufficient of itself to debar you of any such rights.

3d. That you have never resided upon the land alluded to since the month of December, A. D. 1840, when you first openly laid claim to the same, but that on the contrary you have always resided and still reside at Vancouver on the north bank of the Columbia, within the territory actually in dispute between the two Governments, at least twenty miles from his land, and that upon no other principle than that of omnipresence could you be supposed to settle therein.

4th. That while you pretend to hold said land for yourself you in fact hold the same for a foreign corporate body, evinced by the employment of their agents and partners as your pretended agents, and as no corporation in the United States can acquire land by pre-emption so most assuredly a foreign one cannot; and

5th. That your claim arose, if at all, more than two years subsequently to his actual possession, building, fencing, clearing and cultivation, and that therefore all other reasons aside, it cannot be so good.

I regret extremely the failure of my endeavor to make an amicable compromise of this matter between you and that my client has been driven to the vexatious proceedings of the law, in order to establish his rights as an American citizen.

I am very respectfully your obedient servant,

(Signed) JOHN RICORD,

Counsel of Supreme Court U. S. and attorney for A. F. Waller.

8th December 1843.

NOTES ON MR. RICORD'S LETTER, 8TH DECEMBER, 1843.

Mr. Waller first grounds his claim on being actually a citizen of the United States.

That ground would hold good where no pre-emption law existed, but gives him no right, so far as I am informed, to commit an injustice by invading the rights of others, even though those parties should not be natural born American citizens. [...] Mr. Linn's bill has no clause excluding foreigners of any nation from becoming citizens of Oregon, but states that every white male inhabitant shall possess 640 acres of land. In regard to his taking possession of it in 1840 I am astonished that the gentleman should say so. He was and is a servant of the M. E. Mission, earning their money and placed there for their service by the superintendent the Rev. Jason Lee [...] his letter of 28th Nov. [...] I had not the most distant idea when I placed Mr Waller there that he would set up a private claim to the land. 2d. As to the prior occupancy, building, &c. I have already stated I got [...] in 1829-30 and wood prepared for a mill, but the Indians burnt the houses and timber, and in 1835 Mr. Douglas got a small house built for me, which house and wood were there in 1840 when Mr. Waller went there, and part of this wood was lent to Mr. Lee to build the house in which Mr. Waller resides and has resided since he is at the Falls. Mr. Waller only came to the country in 1840, but Mr Lee must recollect that prior to 1838 I told him I was inclined to give up my claim at the Falls to Thomas McKay and let him erect his mill there.

3d. I am not claiming the land for the Hudson's Bay Company, but for myself, as to my employing the H. B. Company's servants, the H. B. Company's books as well as my account will show who pays them. The Methodist Mission have servants of the H. B. Company whom I transferred to them, though these men were under engagements to the H. B. Company. Surely I have the same right to do for myself what I did for them.

4th. Your claim arose if at all more than two years subsequently to his actual possession.

The preceding narrative will show that in 1841 the Rev. Mr. Waller himself acknowledged to me, that he had his claim at the Clackamas. I mentioned to him in 1842 that he had told me in 1841 that his claim was at the Clackamas. "Yes," said he, "but Mr. Lee has taken it for the Mission." If so it must be because he is a servant of the Mission, and if the buildings and clearance belong to the Mission, and have been made at the expense of that body, how can he claim in his own right or call it a private undertaking? There are many people here who can swear that since 1829 [...] I have repeatedly spoken to them of the Falls of the Wallamette as being my claim.

But the best answer I can make Mr. Ricord is the preceding narrative and copy of letters.

Signed JOHN McLOUGHLIN.

Disinterested Parties

The Herald [illegible] engages the attention of the Herald. That paper talks of [illegible] to the course of Williams [illegible] support [illegible]

Disinterested parties attacked the integrity of Williams and showed him to be an actor not on his own motion but in obedience to orders from the chief of a strong lobby at Washington

Wonderfully [illegible] the parties were who attacked the integrity of Williams Every one of them had a hand in the job they were trying to get through Congress and Williams was offered a million or so of stock to help them These [illegible] parties constituted a ring of speculators who had set up a big job for their own profit and aggrandizement regardless of the wants of the the State They were the parties who had the lobby at Washington Pengra was there to co-operate with the Central Pacific ring who own the Nevada delegation and who are anxious to get the lion's share of this new grab Their lobby worked for the Pengra route and the Oregon parties in the concern were assessed for their share of the fund Mr Ladd is also one of the "disinterested parties" whom the Herald talks about Yet he also has stock in the Humboldt Eugene branch He led the attack on Williams in this matter being prompted we suppose, entirely by his interest to take this "disinterested course Had Williams joined with those who have recently been assailing him, shared the stock with them as they desired him to do worked for their common interest followed the instructions of the strong lobby" which they had at Washington, allowed the grant to go through to suit them, and permitted Southern Oregon to be swindled out of a railroad, these "disinterested parties" probably would not have "attacked his integrity" in the recent election

As the Ladd Pengra ring made the Herald the organ for their attacks on the Republican party prior to the election the best thing they can do now is to call off their dogs before more unpleasant truths are told about their conduct in the affair

Demanding to "Know."

We are now arrived at a new stage in railroad proceedings The Herald calls on Mr Holladay to "make a public exhibit of the condition of his affairs," and "show his assets and liabilities" Yes, by all means! And if he has any private correspondence or telegrams that would be of interest to a curious and discerning public let us have them too. Further, we second the Herald's demand to know "why he went East last winter!" The public have an inalienable right to be informed upon these things No "monopolist" should be permitted to form his plans here and work them out without notifying the public thereof, and taking the public's advice. Again, a committee should be appointed to wait on him and demand a full and unreserved statement of his opinions on matters in general We observe also that the Herald demands to know why he has not "put his own name" to certain papers mentioned in connection with the west side railroad. Probably he don't want to render himself liable to pay certain moneys with heavy usances which the capitalists (so-called) are understood to claim as a return for their grand investment in that heretofore highly successful enterprise He may succeed in building the road, indeed he has stated that he will do it, and that he will refund all the money that has been legitimately expended in the undertaking but is it not too much to suppose it to be within the ability of any one man to pay back to the capitalists (so-called) the vast sums which their adventurous dispositions led them to "invest in railroads for the benefit of the city and State? Some things can be done as well as others—and some can't

The Funding Act

It is not easy to get an accurate idea of the provisions of the funding bill which is now before Congress, and which it is said, will certainly pass Numerous changes have been made in the bill since it was first reported, and the telegraphic dispatches have not been full enough to enable us to follow them As it now stands the bill seems to combine the features of both the Senate and House bills. The plan of issuing different classes of bonds with varying rates of interest originated with the Senate This feature seems to be of an experimental character It indicates as has been well said, "a willingness to facilitate funding, but slender faith in its feasibility For if twenty-forty bonds, at four per cent, are marketable the issue of four and a half and five per cent bonds should not be attempted And, vice versa, if only a five per cent security is likely to find customers the proposal to issue others is a mistake, because it entails upon the Treasury the discredit inseparable even from an appearance of failure" The bulk of the bonds are fixed at four per cent interest The question arises at once will a four per cent bond be taken except at a discount so considerable as to give the Government no advantage in the change? Some have confidence that the four per cents will be negotiable on terms advantageous to the country, but others and we think wiser ones confess to but little faith in the feasibility of the measures at this time

Chinese Labor and Free Trade

The New York Herald in an article discussing the Chinese question makes the following plain and practical points regarding the pretended opposition of Democrats to cheap labor and their advocacy of free trade After asking how they can reconcile these things it goes on to say

> The home protectionist, or high tariff man says here is an iron manufacturing establishment which gives the employment that shelters feeds and clothes five hundred American families in consequence of the protective duty upon British iron Take off this duty and this iron establishment from its inability to compete with the pauper labor of England will have to be closed and these aforesaid five hundred American families will be thrown out of employment, and for a time at least, will become a burden instead of a source of prosperity to the community around them, while at the same time the market which the neighboring farmer found for his products at the furnace will be transferred to England But the free trader says it is my right to get my iron in the cheapest market and it is wrong to make me pay a bounty to my neighbor for his iron because he cannot procure the cheap labor of the manufacturer in England How then can this free trader object to the employment by his neighbor of Chinese labor which even with the removal of the iron duty will enable him to compete in our markets with the iron of England? Would you deny him the protections of the tariff and at the same time deny him the right to procure the cheapest labor he can find? If the protection of American industry requires the exclusion of the coolie surely free trade calls for his admission If it is wrong to deny us free trade by taxing the whole community for the support of our home manufactures it is wrong to deny these American factories free trade in the choice of their labor If you would abolish the tariff you must admit the Chinaman, and why not?

Cheaper Money

The San Francisco Commercial Herald on reliable authority, states that there are indications of a reduction in the rate of interest in that city which are quite encouraging It says

> Foreign capital is seeking this market and has already conferred great benefit by cutting down rates to nine and ten per cent. We know of large loans having been effected at nine per cent within the week past

This may [illegible] observe that [illegible] improvements [illegible] ventured upon with reason [illegible] expectation of [illegible] capital [illegible] that which [illegible] been idling away their time for want of occupation These observations are called

> There are however strong indications of a change for the better English and French capital has commenced to seek this market Money is worth 3 per cent in London and foreign holders only feel too glad to get 10 per cent for it on such securities as San Francisco has to offer In New York the rates have been from four to 6 per cent for months past The transcontinental railroads have placed Eastern manufacturers in direct competition with ours and we should have accommodations at something near Eastern prices It was all very well so long as we could maintain an independent isolated position but it won't do now that all the rest of the world has been let in on us that New York is only six days off, and London only fourteen or fifteen days distant We know of late instances in which money has been loaned at 9 per cent per annum having sought this market from Europe The competition so long courted has at length come and with it we shall soon realize a strong revival in all departments of material prosperity

To insure the industrial development of the Pacific States the lesson that we must come down in all respects to those economic principles practised in older communities should be steadily inculcated and continually borne in mind The day is passed when men could expect to make rich strikes in the mines or acquire sudden wealth by fortuitous speculations And as everything else is coming down money should and will come down too Labor is gradually sinking in all departments of industry to Eastern rates and it is time capital were taking the same direction

The Chinese Shoemakers in Massachusetts

The history of the introduction of Chinese shoemakers in Massachusetts is thus condensed by the Springfield Republican in answering a statement made by another paper that Chinese were brought to North Adams to make shoes "because they promised to work for less wages than New England men and women could afford to take" Says the Republican

> This is not true They are brought because that odious trades' union, the Crispin organization, not only refused, through its members, to do the work that Mr. Sampson wanted done, but prevented others who were willing to do the work from undertaking it When the North Adams Crispins struck against the proposed reduction of their pay, Mr Sampson sent to North Brookfield for help and obtained it But the men who went to fill his shop though acknowledging that the wages he offered were better than they had been earning at North Brookfield, were soon intimidated or bought off by the local Crispin association, and left him without workmen again It was then that Mr Sampson determined to procure Chinese

The documents relating to matters of early Oregon history which are furnished by Mrs Victor for publication, and which appear in part in the OREGONIAN to-day are quite interesting and worthy of general perusal The statements are set up from the original manuscript, in the handwriting of Dr McLoughlin, without abridgment or alteration We do not participate in any controversy respecting them, we simply give them to the public at the solicitation of Mrs Victor, satisfied that many Oregon people will take an interest in them

CALIFORNIA AND NEVADA

Two nuggets of pure gold, weighing respectively eight and eleven pounds were discovered a few days ago in Trinity county, Cal

Large quantities of salt are produced annually at the salt marshes at the head of San Diego bay, and the works are being greatly extended.

The Bulletin says that the failure of the Nicolson pavement in San Francisco is an acknowledged fact, but that there is a disposition to improvement rather than to abandon wooden pavements.

The coinage of the Branch Mint at San Francisco for the fiscal year ending June 30, was as follows Double Eagles, $19,235 000 Other denominations of gold coin, $81 050 Half dollars (silver) $557,000. Dimes, etc, $37 500

In the Vallejo procession, on the Fourth of July, there was a pioneer rigged out in the style of a prospector of 1849, with his pick pan, rifle, blankets and cooking fixings all packed on a horse After the procession he camped out cooked a patriotic dinner of pork and beans, and washed it down with old rye and three cheers for the American eagle.

Under the title of "Vale Pullman, the Sacramento Record has this item: The last Pullman train left for the East this afternoon negotiations for their continuance on the Central road having failed. Their trains have injured the road to a greater amount than that paid by Pullman for the privilege of running them The cars weigh over twelve tons each and cause more injury to a locomotive than any three light car cars such as are used on the Central road

The White Pine News says that the people of the northwestern part of Nevada are in a state of excitement over the supposed discovery of a wild white man in the densely wooded mountain near the Utah line. A search was made, and at moonlight a man, about 40 years of age was seen nearly covered with white hair He carried in one hand a club and in the other a rabbit He instantly caught sight of the party, and with a tremendous roar, he attacked their horses with his club The dogs of the party although well trained, could not follow him Throughout the night the party was aroused by his terrible cries He so injured one of the horses that he had to be killed The party followed on his track until they came to a cave where they found a set of soldiers' buttons and a dime dated 1841, from which they came to the conclusion that he was a man lost from Fremont's command in 1846, or near that time

HARMONY AMONG THE BRETHREN The Eugene Journal says

> The Democratic candidates for Senatorial honors are getting more numerous every day Fay has cropped out as a candidate and may be added to the long list He will make a lively fight and will hold some of his more pretentious rivals level The Roseburg organ of Jo Lane and Mosher thinking that it might endanger Lane's chance to have him come up too suddenly is very much disturbed [illegible] we stated that the old General won't be a candidate But this game of denying and pretending to keep back will deceive no one It is now well known that the old hero is on the war path and will make a hard struggle to carry off the prize The friends of the other aspirants know it and are trembling in their boots because they fear his popularity and skill as a politician will upset their arrangements Fay and Lane can hold the northern demagogues a hard tussle

On the strength of the report that Carlyle is coming to the United States the New York Telegram says

> We must inform the toadies upon reality that this philosopher is not a lion of our institutions does not care particularly for our people and in fact has not an idea in sympathy with our ideas We therefore trust that no attempt will be made to lionize him In fact we incline to the opinion that Carlyle will not permit himself to be lionized, but will repel all attempts in that direction with the energetic English for which he is famous Carlyle is now about 75 years of age and has probably closed his literary labors with the revision of his works, to which he has just given the finishing touches

WASHINGTON July 13 The [illegible] to the new funding bill [illegible] bank [illegible] pass The tax and tariff bill will [illegible] the income [illegible] tax is to be [illegible] two years more at 2½ per cent with $2 000 exemption and that cease [illegible] is made under which the President can consolidate collection and supervisorship districts and discharge unnecessary revenue officials Various House provisions, increasing the tariff on foreign liquors are abandoned The tariff on hemp will probably be $25 on jute, $25 per ton the rates on sugar are about as fixed by the Senate [illegible] being in the interest of refiners The effort to get a change of rate of taxes on whisky is a failure and the Committee will not bear anything further from the lobby here in that interest

CHICAGO July 13 A Washington special says there will be a great deal of work left unfinished by Congress notwithstanding the rapid progress made during the past two days

PARIS July 13 Nothing confirmatory to the massacre of Christians in Pekin is received and a private dispatch dated later than the reports of the massacre does not refer to it

Business in New York

NEW YORK July 12 —The occurrence of the National holiday has rendered the past week one of unusual dullness in California freighting business All admit that it is the dullest period yet felt Rates for freight are weak and irregular For California trade overland freights have been most active owing to further reductions in rates for some classes of freight The rates by this route will probably remain for some time as at present—being satisfactory to all concerned The war between the rival lines between here and Chicago and the reduction in rates applies to local freights and does not affect goods destined for San Francisco

Market for wheat quiet and prices low Good brands of flour are in fair demand, prices steady California quiet at $7 25@8 25 Barley dull stock principally California held at 85@90c Wools remain quiet except for California, in which there has been quite an active movement at full prices These wools are largely sought for by manufacturers who are using them in place of foreign Sales of California wools for the week amount to 475 000 lbs at 22@23c for burry, and 26@31c free of burs. At Boston these wools are also in favor Sales amount to 353 000 lbs, at 27@35c, the latter being the price for choice Also 900 the pulled at 31c. Hides, quiet and firm, no California here.

Riot at New York.

NEW YORK July 12 —The Orangemen at their celebration of the anniversary of the battle of the Boyne at Elm Park, to-day, were attacked by 300 Irish laborers, whose anger was raised by some expressions by the Orangemen insulting to their nationality and faith The assailants used stones and implements with which they had been working The Orangemen defended themselves with pistols Thomas Grady was shot in the head and instantly killed also John Brady 14 years old, and others whose names are unknown Four others Cairn, Thomas Murphy Thomas Adams and Sam Smith were fatally injured A large number were seriously wounded A force of police succeeded in quelling the riots Subsequently the cars conveying the Orangemen down town were attacked and several persons wounded Thomas Kane was met in the Central Park by an Orangeman and fatally stabbed The affair created the wildest confusion in the neighborhood of the occurrence From the latest accounts received at police headquarters to midnight, it appears that the riot had assumed more serious proportions than was at first supposed There are two versions of the origin of the difficulty Superintendent Jourdan states that the Orangemen played party tunes, used insulting epithets and finally threw stones at the workmen and fired several shots before any attack was made upon them The workmen then assaulted the Orangemen with spades and shovels and every available weapon The Orangemen were nearly all armed with revolvers Capt Helm states that the workmen were assailants, and after two or three hundred of them had stormed the park and driven three thousand Orangemen out, fighting was carried on in a scattered manner all over the country During these skirmishes there were over a hundred wounded and several killed, but full particulars cannot yet be ascertained. Three workmen were known to have been killed Five were taken to the Hospital in an insensible condition The wounded Orangemen were taken from the field of conflict in carriages It is impossible to ascertain their numbers, but so far it is believed that no Orangemen were killed

The State of Europe—General News

NEW YORK July 13 —The Herald's special dated London July 12 says the formal withdrawal of Prince Leopold has been telegraphed to Madrid

A Paris special to the Herald says the excitement over the quarrel with Prussia is tremendous On Bourse and Boulevards and in cafes and clubs heated discussions are going on Personal encounters are frequent. Ministerial agents are exciting the people against Prussia Military activity is unabated A fleet is under orders for the Baltic, and will be under command of Admiral de la Graviere Gen Delgy is ready to march on Luxemburg with an army of 60 000 men

A London special from Berlin says the people are united in favor of the stand taken by the government, though stocks are declining The belief is general that peace will be preserved

A Washington special says there is the best of reasons for believing that Motley's successor will be Senator Frelinghuysen of New Jersey, and that his name will be sent to the Senate to day or to morrow

Another victim of last night's Irish riots died this morning Four more are in a dying condition

The gold room presented a quiet aspect to day in consequence of the peaceful tenor of European advices Money easier Call loans 4@5 Foreign exchange weaker Long, 7½, short, 10½ Governments are very strong, and one quarter higher, in sympathy with the recovery of foreign securities

THE TERRITORIES

Puget Sound papers report that owing to the depression of the lumber trade many loggers are closing their camps

Five stages loaded with passengers recently arrived in one day at Olympia from Columbia river which is chronicled as quite an "event" by the Transcript

The Government is to receive two dollars each for the seals killed in Alaska and not more than 100 000 are to be killed any one year We may be sure however that the seals there will soon be exterminated

Judge Caton, of Illinois, who has been on a tour through the Pacific States and Territories has returned home taking with him from Washington Territory two live black tailed deer for his park at Ottawa

The Port Townsend Message says the fisheries are looking up The schooner Shooting Star brought down from the fishing grounds some of the finest tongues and sounds and Halibut fins we have ever seen on this coast. Our New England friends are going after them with a perfect rush "

The National Land Company have sold in Colorado since the opening of the Denver office April 11th 19,442 acres for $78 845, receiving in cash $44 478 an increase for June over May of nearly $14,600 The company have also received applications for 40 000 acres of Kansas Pacific Rail road lands which will soon be ready for the market

A dispatch states that the miners at North Park (near the middle of the northern border of Colorado) have been massacred by a body of Utes, who were angered at their refusal to join an attack upon the Cheyennes The Utes first had a battle with the Cheyennes and defeated them and then came back and slaughtered the miners with the usual atrocities This case illustrates the ideas of reciprocity which the savages entertain

The Arizona Indians are again practicing those innocent amusements peculiar to the noble sons of the forest which an effete civilization has long sought to deprive them of A party of prospectors was attacked near Tucson, two white men killed, one scalped his legs burned off his heart cut out and a coal of fire placed in it The cold blooded white soldiers at Camp Grant not appreciating such pastime, started in pursuit of the red skins and, surprising them, killed thirty-five

CURRENT NOTES

The Chicago Tribune thinks that the country knows as much about the Polar sea as is worth knowing or paying for, and that no commercial end can ever be gained by further trips to the Arctic seas

Boston derives over $11 000 000 in dividends payable in July principally in that city. Of this amount over seven millions in bonds over three and a half in dividends and nearly a million in manufacturing dividends

The Darien expedition has again failed and the surveys have been abandoned for the season The only fact established is that the Isthmus can not be passed except by tunneling and the question resolves itself into a consideration of the feasibility of a tunneled canal

During the week ending June 25th the total number of arrests in New York city was 1 865—a larger number than was ever before known in the same space of time On the Sunday included within the above period fifteen violent deaths occurred in that city of bloody horrors

Texas is ahead and Washington's body servant is nowhere Texas reports that a negro woman died in that State on the [illegible] instant who was 135 years old (born in [illegible]) who was (only) one of the oldest inhabitants of Texas " and who was formerly a servant of Washington's mother

The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune tells us that the Pacific coast Representatives are a unit against the Chinese if in nothing else and their persistent opposition manifested in several debates already during the session has produced a considerable impression on other Representatives

The report that white and colored troops are to be mustered together is untrue The 9th and 10th Cavalry are colored troops and they are now in Texas [illegible] and [illegible] being the strength of these regiments The [illegible] and 24th Infantry are 545 and 495 strong and will be filled only with colored recruits No white troops will be sent to these regiments

The ice rates have been advanced greatly in New York The Herald says that hotel keepers and other heavy consumers are organizing co operative companies to import from Maine and other northern points Of all monopolies the ice monopoly is among the meanest It is as bad as the coal monopoly when the supply of fuel is scarce and the weather biting Between the two however it is evident that in monopolies as in almost everything else extremes meet In the present instance the extremes are most unnatural —frost and heat and when they meet there should be an explosion somewhere.

The quantity of whisky produced in Kentucky during the first five months of the current year was 4 023 100 proof gallons or 2 978 000 [illegible] of gallons less than for the same time last year During the month of May [illegible] gallons [illegible] was withdrawn from bond leaving in the warehouses [illegible] gallons against [illegible] gallons on the 31st May 1869 The stock of free whisky in Kentucky on the 1st June was estimated at [illegible] bbls

It is claimed by an agricultural writer that it is not the surplus production that has depressed the price of wheat but the fact that [illegible] farmers refused to [illegible] a fair price held on and finally [illegible] push down the price for this season's production

The Life Sustaining Organs.

The two organs which minister most directly to the support of the body are the stomach and liver In the former the first process of digestion takes place under the action of that powerful solvent the gastric juice Thence the food converted into a pulp passes into the duodenum where it is subjected to the action of the bile or gall flowing from the liver, and of the fluid generated by the pancreas or sweetbread of the system. These secretions separate the nutritious portion from the rest, and it is then taken up by the absorbent vessels and conveyed into the channels of circulation in the form of venous blood while the waste matter is discharged through the bowels Unless all these processes are duly performed disease of some sort is inevitable and the best of all medicinal agents for preserving or restoring the tone and regulating the action of three organs—(the stomach liver and intestines)—by which the threefold work is carried on is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters Indigestion is generally accompanied by constipation and the gentle cathartic operation of the Bitters is no less important in cases of this kind than its tonic effect upon the stomach and the biliary gland Beauty of person as well as health depends in no small degree upon the regularity of the excretive functions A sallow complexion a thick opaque coarse skin a tainted breath a rush of blood to the head loss of memory, headache and extreme mental depression are the usual accompaniments of costiveness A course of the Bitters will unfailingly relieve and finally banish these obnoxious symptoms while invigorating the stomach and promoting healthy action in the liver The agents vegetable stomachic and alterative strikes at disease in its primary sources the assimilating secretive and expulsive organs and the cures it effects are consequently thorough and durable

Fast Living and its Consequences —When fast life has undermined the strength destroyed the appetite impaired the digestion and stolen the hue of health from the cheek—when the hand trembles the spirits droop and the whole physical and mental organization languishes is it possible to repair the evil and [illegible] the dilapidated system to full health and vigor We answer that it is Hundreds of cases have been cited thousands might be cited in which this regeneration has been accomplished by the regular and persistent use of PLANTATION BITTERS After [illegible] from the indulgences which have wrought the mischief as a course one of the means of restoration But it is not sufficient [illegible] The consequences remain after the cause has been abandoned A wholesome and genial tonic is absolutely necessary to rouse [illegible] and the vital energies from the state of collapse This good work it is the mission of the PLANTATION BITTERS to perform But no other stimulant must be taken

The Children.

BY CHARLES DICKENS.

When the lessons and tasks are all ended,
And the school for the day is dismissed,
And the little ones gather around me,
To bid me good night and be kissed;
Oh, the little white arms that encircle
My neck in a tender embrace!
Oh, the smiles that are halos of heaven,
Shedding sunshine of love on my face!

And when they are gone I sit dreaming
Of my childhood too lovely to last;
Of love that my heart will remember,
When it wakes to the pulse of the past,
Ere the world and its wickedness made me
A partner of sorrow and sin;
When the glory of God was about me,
And the glory of gladness within.

Oh, my heart grows weak as a woman's,
And the fountains of feeling will flow,
When I think of the paths steep and stony,
Where the feet of the dear ones must go;
Of the mountains of sin hanging o'er them,
Of the tempest of fate blowing wild;
Oh! there is nothing on earth half so holy
As the innocent heart of a child.

They are idols of hearts and of households;
They are angels of God in disguise;
His sunlight still sleeps in their tresses,
His glory still gleams in their eyes;
Oh! those truants from home and from heaven,
They have made me more manly and mild;
And I know now how Jesus could liken
The kingdom of God to a child.

I ask not a life for the dear ones,
All radiant as others have done,
But that life may have just enough shadow
To temper the glare of the sun;
I would pray God to guard them from evil,
But my prayer would bound back to myself;
Ah! a seraph may pray for a sinner,
But a sinner must pray for himself.

The twig is so easily bended,
I have banished the rule and the rod;
I have taught them the goodness of knowledge,
They have taught me the goodness of God;
My heart is a dungeon of darkness,
Where I shut them from breaking a rule;
My frown is sufficient correction;
My love is the law of the school.

I shall leave the old house in the autumn,
To traverse its threshold no more;
Ah! how I shall sigh for the dear ones,
That meet me each morn at the door!
I shall miss the "good nights" and the kisses,
And the gush of their innocent glee,
The group on the green, and the flowers
That are brought every morning to me.

I shall miss them at morn and at eve,
Their song in the school and the street;
I shall miss the low hum of their voices,
And the tramp of their delicate feet.
When the lessons and tasks are all ended,
And death says, "The school is dismissed!"
May the little ones gather around me,
To bid me good night and be kissed.

British Columbia and Canada.

The New York papers comment upon the terms of union proposed by the British Columbian Government and adopted by the Dominion Cabinet. The Tribune has this:

The New Dominion authorities have promised to build a continental railway to British Columbia if that country will only come into the Union. But it is one thing to promise and another to build a road which will cost $100,000,000, and when finished will connect only icebergs with snow-heaps. The ice trade is a very profitable one this season, as the Knickerbocker Ice Company of this city smilingly asserts, but it won't maintain a railway across the continent.

The Journal of Commerce says:

We do not question that the Dominion Government is acting in good faith in making these propositions; but one of them, at least, the building of the $100,000,000 Pacific Railroad, will be found somewhat difficult of realization, and it is the most important of all. Strong as the desire of the Canadians may be to hitch on British Columbia, they will find it no easy matter to raise $100,000,000 to do it. Sentiment goes for little against the pocket interest. The American Pacific Railroad always had this in its favor, that it promised to pay, ultimately; but we are not clear that a road across the wilderness, described by Viscount Milton and Dr. Cheadle, in their entertaining book about that country, will ever do business enough to meet the expense of greasing the car wheels. There is such a thing as paying too dearly for land, as we have found out in buying Alaska, and as the Dominion will ascertain for itself if it backs loans for $100,000,000 for a road to Victoria. Should this undertaking fail of accomplishment the British Columbians will be among the most disaffected and troublesome of all the colonists; for the great object in consenting to the union is to secure the railroad.

The Times says:

If British Columbia is added to the Confederated Provinces, the Dominion of Canada will be more unwieldy than ever. Even now the widely extended frontier of the Dominion renders it, in a military sense, indefensible. It is a line that is strong at no point, and at most points is so exposed and vulnerable that even the Fenians could snap it like thread, if the Government here did not hold them back. To add British Columbia, with fifteen hundred miles, or more, of intervening wilderness,—to undertake its government and defense at that distance from the western settlement of Canada—is simply preposterous. A frog once tried to become an ox—but he didn't. Canada evidently labors under the hallucination which afflicted the frog.

LIVINGSTONE—HIS PROBABLE FATE.—At the final fortnightly meeting of the session of 1869–70 of the Royal Geographical Society of England, in London, June 14, Sir R. Murchison referred to the present position of Dr. Livingstone and the succor which is to be sent to him. He said:

There have been great misapprehensions about this affair, and I have received numerous applications from active young men anxious to go in search of Dr. Livingstone, supposing that there was a real expedition about to start from this country or elsewhere. There is no such expedition, even in imagination, and certainly none in reality, contemplated in any way. Dr. Livingstone has been more than three years and a half in the heart of Africa, without a single European attendant. I am not sure that the sight of a young gentleman sent out from England, who was not acclimatized, would not produce a very bad effect instead of a good one upon my friend the doctor, because he would have to take care of the new arrival, who would very soon die there, and the poor doctor would have an additional load. I have, therefore, to announce that there is no such intention whatever. I have received a dozen letters from admirable young volunteers, who are anxious to distinguish themselves, but who have not the least idea of what they are about. I have every reason to believe that the £1,000 that the government has given will go out by the Consul of Zanzibar, who happens, accidentally, to be in this country and who is going out immediately. He will instruct Dr. Kirk, the Vice Consul, to refit the same expedition which was started before, but which was impeded by an attack of cholera. The cholera has passed away entirely, the country is free from Zanzibar and the only difficulty now is to get up to Ujiji, where my dear and valued friend was, and still is, for he cannot move forward or backward without carriers, supplies and so forth. It will take two months or more for those supplies to go from the seaboard to Ujiji, therefore you must put up all anxiety for some months to come. I hope in about seven or eight months hence you will hear good news and that very soon after that we shall see our friend again in his native country.

PIOUS SUPERSTITION AND THE INDIAN QUESTION.—Under this head a German paper of Pittsburg discourses thus:

It must be acknowledged that the different papers in the country furnish their mustard seed in order to solve the Indian question. We may therefore be permitted to contribute a little of ours—and if it should itch—then we beg pardon.

It is a pious hallucination to accustom Indians to agriculture—which has been contracted long ago by the declarations of the Indian chiefs. The Indian has, with the cotton aristocracy and a part of the native born Americans, an aversion to work. The red Autochthon believes that work is good enough for the 'pale face' and the white native—that is to good enough for the foreign emigrant.

The only way to solve the Indian question is to confine the different tribes in certain boundaries, and to shoot them without mercy as soon as they leave the appointed range, before they gain time to try knife and tomahawk [illegible]

The experiment of Grant's with Quaker missionaries is well in [illegible] but it will end [illegible] The so-called civilization [illegible] The Indian will not permit himself to be civilized. You must either allow him to live as his fathers lived before, or he must be exterminated. The latter will ultimately be his fate, for the simple reason that such an [illegible] territory, which would be [illegible] [illegible]

SAN FRANCISCO, July 13.—Flour—There is little old except Oregon in the market. Quotable at $4 75@5 25 for superfine and [illegible] for extra. [illegible] brands $4 62½@5 00 for superfine, $5 75@6 00 for extra. Apart from a lot of 1,000 bbls in process of shipment to Central America, we know of no export demand. The local trade is steady at unchanged rates.

Wheat—Old [illegible] for milling, $1 [illegible], new $1 70@1 80.

Barley—The [illegible] has about completed her cargo for Peru. She will carry 1,700 tons. The stock of old is large, and the new crop good; the demand for feed is less than last year. The range for the bulk of sales is $1 20@1 22½, though extremes are still $1 17½@1 25 ⅌ 100 lbs.

Oats—Three small lots of new arrived on the 11th inst.—first of the season. One of these lots, light description, sold at $1 [illegible]; another lot, heavy, was placed on terms not reserved. The market is less strong than last week. Consignments can hardly be quoted above $1 85@1 95 for choice, and from that down to $1 [illegible].

Middlings—The local millers quote feed at $30 00 and fine at $35 00 ⅌ ton, while lots from the interior sold at a slight discount.

Bran—Sales of 150 tons, sundry lots, at $20 ⅌ ton from mills.

Oil Cake Meal—During the week the price has been reduced to $25 00 ⅌ ton, a decline of $5 00.

Eggs—Oregon 25c ⅌ doz.

Provisions—Jobbing prices steady [illegible] for California and Oregon bacon, hams and lard; California smoked beef 14c; Chicago and St. Louis sugar cured hams [illegible]

TO THE UNFORTUNATE
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES!

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, [illegible] Diseases of years standing and [illegible] successfully treated.

Horrible Disease.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects [illegible] indulgence, or from virus absorbed into the system [illegible] the pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces, and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible and destroying maladies—see that they are cared for [illegible]. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases a specialty for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest publicities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases to the days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequently insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a sure cure by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never failed effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that the weakness [illegible] complained of by other of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these [illegible] maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay obtaining immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written guarantee, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or take no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, by Post Office, Express, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco [illegible] and pretenders who, with bogus [illegible] [illegible]
